

Dr. Larry Feldman, Vice Chair The School Board of Miami-Dade County Monthly Electronic Newsletter

I hope you have an opportunity to enjoy this month's pictures. It always gives me great pleasure to attend the many events and share the highlights with all of you. Seniors, enjoy your upcoming graduation day. I have signed up to attend over 18 ceremonies. I look forward to seeing many of you on that very special day.

Dr. Larry Feldman

DISTRICT 9 SCHOOL AND STUDENT NEWS

- Dr. Feldman recognized Wednesday, April 15, 2015, as Academic Signing Day. High School Seniors from each of the nine districts, along with their principal and CAP Advisor, met at the School Board Meeting to sign their academic scholarship. Angela Ortiz, a senior from School for Advanced Studies, Homestead, was also there and represented all the students who have overcome obstacles to graduate. Angela, despite a cancer diagnosis in 2013, has been determined to succeed even though the doctors advised her to drop out of school. Angela, who has been in remission since January 2014, will be attending Harvard University in the fall with a full financial aid package.
- Senior, Jennifer Quinones from MAST@Homestead, is a National Society of High School Scholar, winner of the Miami-Dade Fair & Exposition Scholarship and a Coca Cola Scholars semifinalist.
- PTA Reflections State Winners
- Senior, Liseth Perez-Sanchez, from Coral Reef Sr. is a recipient of the Gates Millennium scholarship.
- Kristin Putz, a graduating senior from Coral Reef Sr. received an appointment to the United States Military Academy at West Point.
